

AYRSHIRE JOINT STRUCTURE PLAN APPROVED

The Ayrshire Joint Structure Plan: Growing a Sustainable Ayrshire was approved by Scottish Ministers on Thursday 22 November 2007. The plan sets the context for development in Ayrshire to 2025. Key policies include the construction of an additional 37000 houses in the period, a context for taking decisions on windfarm applications and opportunities for economic development.

The plan can be viewed on this website by following the link.
